The Programme

OVERVIEW

Embarking on a transformative academic journey throughout Europe offers the opportunity to expand one's intellectual horizons while immersing oneself in a rich tapestry of cultures and experiences. The European Triple Bachelor in Economics and Business (EU-TriBE), is a three-year programme offered by three prominent institutions: Luiss University in Rome, the Solvay Brussels School of Economics and Management of the Université libre de Bruxelles (ULB) in Belgium, and Goethe University in Frankfurt, Germany.

EU-TriBE presents a unique opportunity for students to attain three nationally accredited degrees. The students will be graduating with a:

- Bachelor's Degree in Economics and Business from Luiss;
- Bachelor's Degree in Economics from the Université Libre de Bruxelles;
- Bachelor's Degree in Economics and Business Administration from Goethe.

The programme features a structured pathway spanning three years, with each year conducted at a different university, which encourages students to engage deeply with diverse cultures and educational systems. Over the span of two consecutive academic years, participants will have the opportunity to experience the academic and cultural richness of three captivating and dynamic cities located in the heart of Europe, thereby deepening their understanding of economics and business within varied contexts.

Luiss students will follow a tailored study track based on their home university, further enhancing their academic journey:

- First year (2025/2026) at Luiss;
- Second year (2026/2027) at Solvay;
- Third year (2027/2028) at Goethe.

PARTNERS

Solvay Brussels School of Economics and Management (SBS-EM)

SBS-EM, part of the Université Libre de Bruxelles (ULB), is a leading institution in Economics and Management, dedicated to nurturing future leaders through a multidisciplinary and rigorous education.

Emphasizing critical thinking, free inquiry, and research, SBS-EM offers a challenging curriculum that fosters innovation and prepares students for global careers, supported by an extensive international alumni network. Brussels, a cosmopolitan triple capital and home to major institutions like NATO and the EU, offers a vibrant yet relaxed environment. With a diverse international community, the city combines a rich array of amenities with easy accessibility and green spaces, making it a unique urban experience.

As part of the SBS-EM, students benefit from both a world-class education and the dynamic, international atmosphere of this thriving city.

Goethe University, Frankfurt

At the nexus of Europe and global interaction, Goethe embodies the ideals of a progressive educational institution. Established in 1914 by civic-minded individuals, it has evolved into an autonomous foundation university since 2008, reflecting its commitment to a forward-thinking academic community. The University is deeply rooted in its historical context and remains steadfast in its adherence to the principles of European Enlightenment, democracy, and the rule of law. Frankfurt, known as a green city with over 120 parks and located near Germany's scenic wine region, offers both natural beauty and a vibrant urban life. With nearby Taunus hills, the Rhine River, and over 450 sports clubs, the city provides ample outdoor and recreational activities. As a major transportation and economic hub with nearly 700,000 residents, Frankfurt is efficient to navigate and was named Germany's most livable city in 2018. Students enjoy free public transportation through the Goethe Card and access to the city's rich cultural offerings, including museums and theaters, with student discounts.

PROGRAMME RULES

GENERAL RULES

While every effort is made to provide students with complete, accurate and timely information, Luiss, Solvay and Goethe reserve the right to change, amend, modify or revoke the following Programme Rules and Student Handbook.

The Programme Rules are aimed at students enrolled in the first year of the Bachelor's Degree in Economics and Business in the a.y. 2025/2026 and taking part in EU-TriBE.

Interested students are required to read and understand the study plan and the Programme Rules. These are to be considered binding to the successful completion of the programme. Changes to the study plan are usually not possible and any request in this sense must be conveyed to the International Development Office, that cannot guarantee its feasibility.

The list of courses to be taken abroad may be subject to changes should the academic offer at Solvay and Goethe be amended.

Luiss is not responsible for any cancellation or modification due to events beyond its control. If the programme is cancelled or modified for these reasons, Luiss will inform all interested students in a timely manner.

PROGRESSION OF STUDIES

Selected students will be required to take all credits listed in each academic year at the university where she or he is studying within the academic year (excluding the retake session in August / September). Failure to do so implies withdrawal from the programme and return to their home institution, which can recognize credits taken abroad at their own discretion according to its own procedures and policies.

REGULATIONS

As a general principle, students are subject to the Academic Regulations of the University where they are studying in each academic year. These regulations apply not only to the Academic Activities, but also the rights and duties of the student, such as data protection, withdrawal or leave of absence, progress of study, etc.

- Luiss: students are subject to the University Academic Regulations, the Code of Conduct and the Code of Ethics.
- ULB: students are subject to the General Study Regulations and the Student Discipline Regulations of the current year.
- Goethe: students are subject to the Examination Regulation Bachelor of Science in Economics and Business Administration.

ATTENDANCE

- No compulsory attendance for courses, but exceptions exist when professors specifically request compulsory attendance pour group, oral, or exercise sessions for instance.
- For exams, students that decide not to take an exam can be given an “attendance note” if they request it directly to the professor. Otherwise, they will be registered as “absent”: an absence can be justified or unjustified only for information to the deliberation jury.

EXAMS AND RETAKE POLICIES

- Examinations are divided into two sessions: the first session takes place in two different periods, one in January and the other in June; the second session takes place between August and September.
- Students are permitted to take an examination multiple times, provided the associated course is a component of their annual academic programme. Each examination may be undertaken twice within a given academic year: once in the first session, which may occur either in January (semester 1) or June (semester 2), and once more in the second session during August.
- The content of the annual academic programme is determined based on the remaining credits required for the completion of the respective programme cycle. First-year courses must be successfully completed within the first two years of the bachelor’s programme, while all programme courses must be completed within a maximum timeframe of five years.

ATTENDANCE

- Students can take each exam a maximum of three times and afterwards they are expelled from the programme.
- The specific assessment criteria for each individual course will be delineated in the respective course syllabus.

EXAMS AND RETAKE POLICIES

- Attendance of classes is only compulsory in seminars.
- Final exams can only be taken after the corresponding courses have ended.

CREDIT TRANSFER

Students will graduate from all three universities upon the successful completion of all required credits for each degree, in accordance with the assessment criteria for each course or activity. This must be achieved by the conclusion of their third year in the programme. The home institution reserves the right to recognize credits earned abroad at its discretion, in accordance with its own established procedures and policies.

Table of Conversion

Solvay - Grade	Luiss - Grade	Goethe - Grade	Luiss - Grade
A	30 cum Laude	A	30 cum Laude
B	30	B	30
C	29	C	29
D	26	D	26
E	23	E	25
F	fail	F	23
			fail

Please note that the conversion table may be revised and updated ahead of the mobility in the a.y. 2026/2027 should the distribution of grades at the partner universities change.

FINAL WORK / THESIS AND GRADUATION

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS:

- Students will only graduate from all three universities upon successful completion of all credits necessary for each degree. This includes adhering to the assessment criteria stipulated for every course and activity by the end of the third year of the programme.
- Students will complete the final work / thesis during the third year of the programme (2027/2028) at Goethe University.

LUISS

SUPERVISION

- Luiss will establish an academic commission composed of three faculty members, each representing one of the specializations or tracks: Economics, Finance, and Management.
- This commission will also function as part of the Luiss graduation commission. Their responsibilities include assigning a grade according to the Luiss grading scale while considering the assessment provided by the supervisor at Goethe University.

GRADUATION

- EU-TriBE students are not eligible for graduation at Luiss in the Summer Session 2027/2028 (July). Therefore, the earliest graduation session will be in Autumn 2027/2028 (October / November).
- Approximately 2 to 3 months after the official graduation date, a non-mandatory graduation ceremony is held in Rome. Students have the option to collect their diplomas on this day.
- Should a student choose not to attend the graduation ceremony, the diploma will be mailed to their designated home address.

SUPERVISION

- No thesis supervision is expected from Solvay

GRADUATION

- The deliberation takes place in the beginning of September.
- The graduation ceremony is scheduled one month later, in October.

GOETHE UNIVERSITY

SUPERVISION

- Students can apply for a thesis supervisor during the second semester of their third year.
- As part of the application process, students may indicate up to five preferences for their supervisor.
- Supervisors are assigned based on these preferences; however, if a student does not receive any of their preferred supervisors, an alternative supervisor will be appointed.
- The assigned supervisor will collaborate with the student to define the thesis topic and outline the structure of the thesis.

GRADUATION

- Grades are typically released by the end of August.
- The deliberation process and official graduation can occur anytime following the submission of the thesis.

HOUSING

The university does not provide accommodation, so students are responsible for finding their own housing. However, it is possible to apply for student dormitories, subject to availability.

SOLVAY BRUSSELS SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS AND MANAGEMENT (SBS-EM)

SBS-EM can help providing housing on campus and in private residences but does not guarantee housing to any incoming students. It is essential to begin the search for accommodation well in advance, as availability can be competitive. SBS-EM provides student dormitories, and applicants can submit requests for housing through the university's official website. For those seeking housing, please check the following websites: Spot-a-Home, Immoweb, and Housing Everywhere.

More info here: Trouver un logement - ULB

GOETHE UNIVERSITY

Goethe does not guarantee housing to any incoming students, while it will do its best to support the student in finding suitable accommodation. Available options:

- Studierendewerk residences
- Private residences
- Private apartments

The student services association “Studentenwerk” plays a vital role in managing student accommodation in Frankfurt, overseeing over half of the city’s dormitories. With seventeen dormitories providing more than 1,850 rooms, students from Goethe and two other local universities have a range of options for their housing needs. The residence halls cater to diverse preferences, offering everything from single rooms and private apartments to shared accommodations. For comprehensive information about housing options and the application process, we encourage you to visit the student service association Studentenwerk website. Due to limited capacity in dormitories, many students opt for private housing arrangements. A popular choice among students is to live in Wohngemeinschaften (WGs), or shared apartments, which foster a community environment. To assist students in their search for private housing, the student service association Studentenwerk provides a complimentary service that displays available rooms and apartments for rent at their Service Center.

CAMPUS AND STUDENT LIFE

SOLVAY BRUSSELS SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS AND MANAGEMENT (SBS-EM)

The School proudly provides an exceptional range of multidisciplinary studies for over 4,200 students, encompassing bachelor's, master's, specialized master, and PhD programmes. The commitment to academic excellence is evident in its diverse curriculum, which is designed to equip students with the knowledge and skills needed to thrive in today's dynamic job market.

Solvay state-of-the-art facilities and resources foster a stimulating learning environment, while its experienced faculty members bring real-world expertise to the classroom. By encouraging collaboration across various fields of study, it prepares the students to think critically and innovatively, addressing complex challenges in a global context.

GOETHE UNIVERSITY

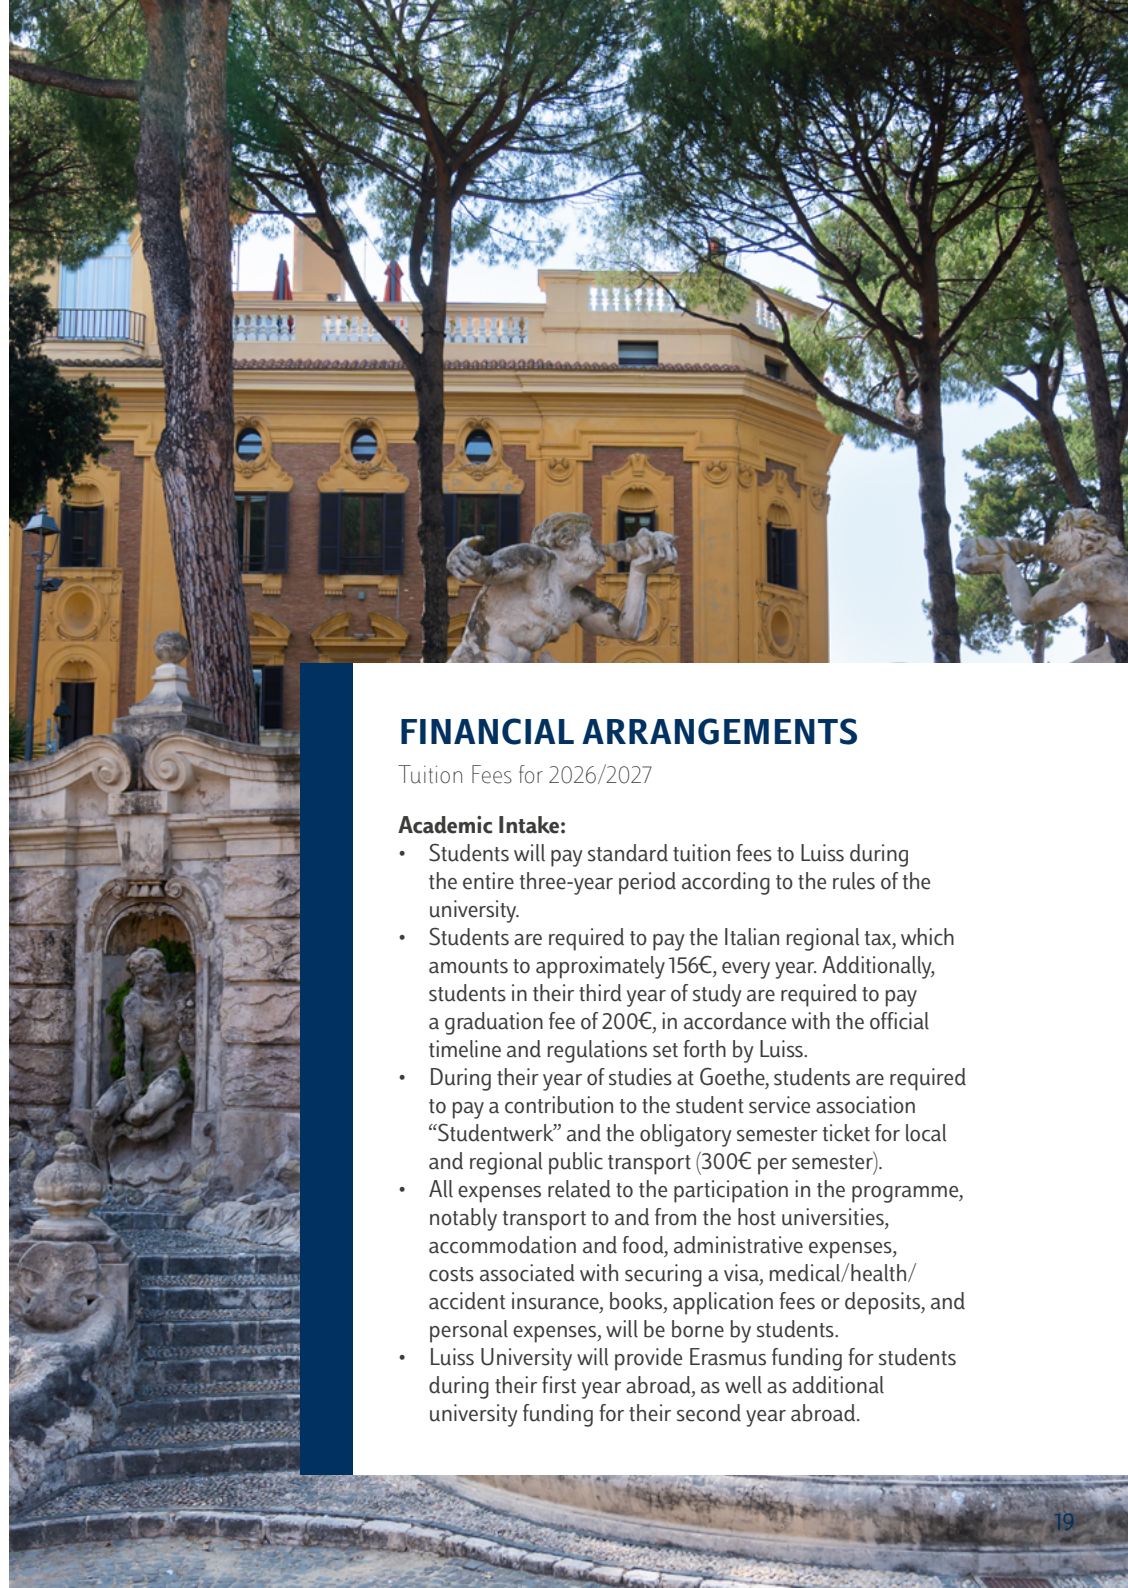

Goethe proudly hosts a vibrant community of over 48,000 students, including approximately 7,600 international students from around 136 diverse countries.

This rich tapestry of cultures and backgrounds fosters an enriching academic environment that encourages collaboration and cross-cultural exchange. The university's three main campuses are buzzing with energy, thanks to a wide array of student organizations and activities that cater to various interests and goals.

From cultural clubs and sports teams to academic societies and artistic groups, there is something for everyone. Regular events, workshops, and networking opportunities not only enhance the student experience but also promote personal growth and professional development.

Moreover, Goethe places a strong emphasis on educational innovation, offering numerous programmes and resources designed to equip students with the skills needed to thrive in an increasingly globalized world.

The combination of a robust academic framework, a supportive community, and lively campus life ensures that every student can make the most of their university experience while forging lasting connections and friendships.

FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENTS

Tuition Fees for 2026/2027

STUDENT ASSOCIATIONS AND INITIATIVES

SOLVAY BRUSSELS SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS AND MANAGEMENT (SBS-EM)⁴

The BE Solvay hosts a variety of clubs dedicated to providing extra-curricular activities that cater to diverse interests and academic disciplines. These clubs encompass a wide range of areas, from finance and marketing to expressive arts and social consciousness, ensuring that there is a valuable opportunity for every student to engage. Additionally, the offerings include critical general subjects, such as mentor networks and job interview preparation, which are essential for student development. Participation in student associations is a crucial component of the educational journey for students throughout their university tenure. Therefore, the Solvay EIB is committed to facilitating involvement in its various clubs, thereby enabling students to acquire and enhance their skills in a practical environment alongside peers from diverse backgrounds.

GOETHE UNIVERSITY

A vibrant array of student groups enhances the academic and social landscape, contributing to a rich tapestry of cultural, political, and recreational opportunities.

These initiatives⁵ not only foster community engagement but also provide a platform for students to voice their ideas and collaborate on diverse projects.

To gain official recognition as a “student initiative,” groups must meet specific criteria designed to ensure they align with the university’s values and mission. This recognition offers greater visibility and access to resources, enabling student groups to thrive and further enrich the university experience for all.
